Meeting was cloud recorded I don't know if I should share here.

My page will have a home page with an overall display of a balisong as the hero image.

Followed by a short description of this history coming from the wikipedia page or

<https://bladeops.com/blog/the-art-of-balisong-flipping-how-it-became-a-global-phenomenon/> which has a bit more information. A video embed of a trick compilation at the bottom ends off the page.  Incredible Butterfly Knife Tricks (Balisong)

There will be a second page for tricks of the balisong separated by section for beginner intermediate and advanced. A few tricks will be picked from the following links.

Beginner:  Butterfly Knife Tricks for Beginners #1 \(Basic Opens\)

Intermediate:  Balisong Tricks - \(Index Roll\) - Intermediate #1

Advanced:  Balisong Tutorial - \(ALT Reverse Behind the 8 Ball\) - Advanced #1

I want the videos and tricks to be the main focus of the site rather than the tricks themselves. Include the name and that is all that is necessary.

A third page will be used for video game references where balisongs have been used.

I'm thinking of a minimalist style in black and white. If highlights are needed then a light blue highlight can be used.

That is the desire I have for my microsite.
